

N : Number of data points

S : sum of squares

k : sensitivity of S to changes in the data

KU : upper bound for the relative perturbation which would occur in the exactly computed sum of squares if the input data contained relative errors of size u

u : see def above

SVM : Support Vector Machine